Ashland announces price increase for its Purerad™ products in North America

DUBLIN, Ohio, September 21, 2018 – Ashland announced today it will increase the price for its Purerad™ products in North America by 6 percent, effective October 5, 2018.

While Ashland continues to focus on managing the costs of its products to deliver top-quality products and exceptional service, this price action is a measured response to the continued cost increases in feedstocks, key raw materials and freight.
